KINDERGARTEN WENT TO CHAS, W. MEYER.

Schorr's Great 2-Year-Old Romped Away With the Stake, Under Wraps.

TRIO TOOK SECOND HONORS.

Kaloma Could Not Reach the Son of Argyle-Maximus Sulked Badly and Will Be Barred in Betting.

Charles W. Meyer, John W. Schorr's great 2-year-old colt, by Esher-Ultimatum, proved yesterday that he is equal to the est horse of his age in the West, if not in the country, by winning the Kindergarten Stakes at the Fair Grounds, in 1:01% on a slowish track, from Trio, Kaloma, Lee Nutter and The Four Hundred. The race appeared to be only an exercise gallop for the handsome brown son of Esher. Charles W. Meyer was off to a running start with Trio and The Four Hundred, but the last named only lasted for a few jumps. Trio and Meyer ran nose and nose for a sixteenth, when the class of the Esher colt told, as he fairly jumped away from the gelding, and came into the stretch a full two lengths to the good. From that to the finish little J. T. Woods took one wrap after another in the reins and the winner of the Gaston Hotel Stakes cantered past the wire three lengths ahead of Trio, who or the Gaston Hotel Stakes cantered past the wire three lengths ahead of Trio, who had been forced to a mild drive when Kaloma got into the running with him. Trio disposed of Kaloma a sixteenth out and ran into second place hand riding.

Kaloma had none the better of the start, but he ran his race and could not have inished abead of the two that beat him if he had been off first. His ride was all that could be asked.

The Schorrs also won the third race. Farmer Bennett carried their colors to victory in hollow style. Ida Ledford was the only thing in with him that had a chance, and she cut the Memphis 3-year-old off on the clubhouse turn, but he pased her on the stable turn easily after rating two lengths behind down the back stretch. Farmer Beynett won in a gallop and Itia Ledford was beyond halling distance from the others.

George Arnold, who was counted the best the others.

George Arnold, who was counted the best George Arnold, who was counted the best horse in the West last season, made his first appearance yesterday and was installed a favorite at once by the large Saturday crowd. He was high in fiesh and hardiy fit to win in any company. In addition he was off in the middle of a big bunch, and it would have required his greatest efforts when in good condition to run into the money.

A. D. Gibson, who won the race in which Arnold started, was at odds of 30 to 1 in the books, regardless of his good race in his the books, regardless of his good race in his last out.

Maximus was supposed to outclass his field in the fifth race of the day and was a hot favorite with the Saturday speculators, who always go down, hook, line and sinker, on the favorites. Maximus not only got off last, but actually lost many lengths in the first half of the journey. He is a very sulky animal, and a strong man could not make him go if he took it into his stubborn head to trail the bunch, which he did yesterday with a vengeance.

Judge Brady decided to bar Maximus from the betting hereafter on his showing yesterday, and now he will have to run for the purses alone, like Tulia Fonso, and can separate no one from his money until he shows a tendency to run to some kind of form.

Charles W. Mayor's victory in the price.

Charles W. Meyer's victory in the stake event was such an easy one that the sixth race was looked upon to furnish the best contest of the afternoon. It did not, as Wall was so well ridden, and won so cleverly, that there was not much to it.

Wall surprised every one by his race. He got off last and was cleverly rated behind the fast-going field, with Hurry at the head, by Harshberger. Wall has little speed compared with those he beat, but Hurry went to the front and carried the others off their feet. Sarner and Duellist tried to keep up the killing speed of the track-burning Hurry. The latter died to nothing on the stable turn, and the steady, going Wall came up, mowing his field down one at a time. In the stretch he seemed to come with the speed of a prairie fire, but the others were all out and the Darden colt was going easy as he passed the wire, three lengths in front of Duellist.

Brulare was the best of the lot in the closing race of the day, and Plunkett drew a fine finish on him with the improved Verify. Horseshoe Tolacco showed his usual burst of speed at the start, but was shoved out of show-money by Meddlesome, who ran in improved form.

The racing was good throughout and the spectators left well satisfied, as three well-played favorites carried their money, while the other winners were not isolated by any means.

UNSIGHTLY WON MATCH RACE.

Terminus Made Up Nine Lengths in Stretch and Ran a Grand Race. Stretch and Ran a Grand Race.
Clicinnati, O., May 25.—The feature of the card at the Newport track to-day was the match race between R. J. Hiner's Unsignily and W. T. Shafter's Terminus, at a mile. The track was sloppy and fast time was out of the question, but, all things considered, it was a good contest throughout.
Unsightly went to the front at flag-fall and opened up a gap of ten lengths. Terminus was game, however, and made up ground very fast. At these three-quarters pole, he cut down Unsightly's lead to two lengths and made a bold bid for the money in the stretch. He was closing fast at the finish, but could not overtake Unsightly, who won, ridden out, by a length. The time was 1:45. The weather was cold and raw. Attendance large; betting heavy. Summary:

This is the case with the Federal Development Company, whose charter was filed in the office of the Secretary of State at Trenton yesterday. The plan is an ingenious one to avoid paying a big tax to the State, the annual tax of New Jersey being one-tenth of 1 per cent on the authorized capital stock at par. By this means the company gets off with an annual tax of 200. The charter of the company is extraordinarily broad. While organized for the development of real estate, yet the power under the charter is practically unlimited and the company could manufacture anything from a toothpick to a plane or do any other kind of business.
